Paper No:20080812
Application No:10/564865
Filing Date: January 17,2006

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. It should be brief but technically accurate and descriptive, preferably from two to seven words. See 37 CFR 1.72(a).

2. The drawings are objected to because the blank rectangular boxes and/or merely numbered boxes of figures 1-4 (elements 32,34,36,38,40) must be labeled. Conventional features disclosed in the description and claims, where their detailed illustration is not essential for a proper understanding of the invention, should be illustrated in the form of a graphical drawing symbol or a labeled representation (e.g., a labeled rectangular box). see 37 CFR 1.83(a). It is further pointed out that merely numbering the boxes is not considered an appropriate label. Structural elements which can be understood by conventional graphical drawing elements are not required to be labeled. Electronic elements enclosed in a "black box" require consulting the text of the specification and thus require labeling. If the box is too small to label, an appropriate label with an arrow pointing towards the box is acceptable. Correction is required.

Art Unit: 2837

3. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim is unclear and does not appear to match the description in the specification. It appears to be the top-weighted sectoring of page 5 but the claim only appears to describe the "next sector" and does not state the determination of the preliminary sectors and rearranging the sectors.

4. Claims 1-19 are allowed.

The limitations of an elevator car travel controller wherein floors are grouped into preliminary contiguous sectors and then rearranged such that at least one of the sectors has at least one floor not contiguous with at least one other floor in the same sector is not taught or reasonably suggested by the cited art of record.

5. Claim 20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Mandel et al., MacDonald et al., Wyss et al and De Jong et al are cited to illustrate similar elevator travel controllers using dynamic sectoring and non-sequential sectors but do not illustrate a preliminary grouping which is then rearranged to be non-sequential.

A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire 3 months from the date of this letter.

Failure to respond within the period for response will cause the application to become abandoned. 35 U.S.C. 133
